

Paul Pasier brings his vast experience to everyone seeking to improve their life.

Everyone's Life Rules, the Foundation, is an inspiring, easy-to-apply guide to improve your life. After earning a Master in Business Administration from the State University of New York at Buffalo (University of Buffalo), he served in General Motors and other major corporations before providing Information Technology consulting to many other organizations, including The Home Depot, Georgia Pacific, CB Richard Ellis and AIG.

His ability to adjust and reinvent himself with a positive goal-oriented approach permeates through the guidelines he provides. His experience ranges from strategic thinking and creative development to getting his hands dirty to make things happen. His dramatic application of self improvement is revealed in an inspiring manner and will help everyone propel their life forward.

No matter your need, Everyone's Life Rules is designed to build a realistic approach and foundation for you to use. Paul Pasier's accomplishments range from his superior performance in educational pursuits, to accomplishments within major corporations, to building his own business, being awarded a patent and applying his experience and guidance as a life coach.

Now everyone has the opportunity to build the life they have always dreamed and put self improvement into action with Paul Pasier's Everyone's Life Rules, the Foundation.